The senior hit past 74 other competitors, including owning a stroke lead over Bryan Ratterman's second place finish for Bellarmine.

EIU finished with a combined 867 score to end up just three-over-par team-wise, while team winner NKU ended up with a seven-under-par 857 score.

More importantly, the Panthers topped fellow Ohio Valley Conference competitors Morehead State (873/6th), Tennessee Tech (889/9th) and Murray State (893/10th).

Northern Kentucky picked up team honors at the two-day event which was played on the Par 72, 6,656-yard course at Pine Mountain

State Park.

Also having a fine opening round of play was fellow senior Gino Parrodi, who also finished in the Top 20 with his 19th place tie and 219 stroke (+3) tally.

Rounding out the Panther contingent were junior Tommy Ponce with a 30th place tie at 222 (+6), while senior Sean Dozier and newcomer James Jansen tied for 35th and 42nd place, respectively, off scores of 223 (+7) and 226 (+10).

Eastern is set to return to the links on October 2-4 for the annual Butler Fall Invitational in Indianapolis, which will be played at the Eagle Creek Golf Course.
